

Tiger: A catcher is leading the AL batting race

Continued from Page C1

There's no doubt that Rodriguez, who is hitting .370 and on Wednesday led his closest competitors, Baltimore's Melvin Mora and Anaheim's Vladimir Guerrero, by 23 points, is focused. He was the AL Player of the Month for June, when he hit .500 with

LOCAL REPORT

COLLEGES

ODU's Cahana wins top CAA honor

Old Dominion University women's tennis player Nataly Cahana was selected as the Colonial Athletic Association Female Scholar-Athlete of the Year in voting by the league's sports information directors.

To qualify, athletes must be a starter or an important reserve on their team and have a grade-point average of 3.25.

The only four-time CAA Player of the Year in women's tennis, Cahana finished with a singles record of 143-28.

William and Mary basketball player Adam Hess won the men's award.

Preseason All-American team Wednesday.

A TSN second-team selection following his NCAA record setting 195-tackle performance in 2003, Talley was also named to the Athlon Preseason Division I-AA All-American first team.

BASEBALL

Zimmerman sparks U.S.

Ryan Zimmerman, a former standout at Kellam High and a current player at Virginia, is the second-leading hitter for the USA Baseball national team after 10 games.

Zimmerman is batting .414 and leads the United States (6-4) in RBIs (11) and home runs (2).

at No. 18 to break a deadlock with Barboursville's Whitney Neuhauser, 16, and post a one-shot victory as the 35th Virginia State Golf Association Junior Girls' Championship concluded Wednesday at South Riding Golfers' Club.

With her closing birdie, Ross shot a final-round 77 and finished with a 6-over-par 150 total. Neuhauser, who won the 16-17 age group, carded a 76 to match the low round of the day and finished at 151.

Suffolk's Lauren Doughtie was fourth at 79-79-158.

TENNIS

Va. Wesleyan adds player

Virginia Wesleyan has added Keira McMillan to its women's tennis roster.

Do you need teeth due

Ca
Dr. Gary
Dr. Carrie

420-1507
5333 Indian River Road, Virginia Beach

Outdoor World

More Outdoors For Your Money